Language Calendar

Talk about where you will go and who you will see on Thanksgiving.	Make a turkey by tracing your hand; talk about each step.	Have a tea party with real or pretend food; invite someone to your tea party.	Open your backpack and label everything inside.	Talk about what it means to share; share something with a friend.
Paint with mud; talk about what you painted.	Turn on music and have a dance party; practice dancing quickly and slowly.	Draw a face on a piece of paper or a cup; roll and squish Play-Doh to make hair for the face.	Watch or play a game of football; talk about the rules.	Tell someone what you will do over the weekend.
Count how many syllables are in the words Thanksgiving, pie, and turkey.	Pretend to be a bird; peck like a chicken, waddle like a duck, flap like crow, gobble like a turkey.	Go outside and describe the weather: raining, sunny, windy, hot, cold, etc.	Sing or listen to "Going on a Bear Hunt" while moving through rooms in your house.	Set a timer for one minute; name as many animals as you can.
Find three things in your house that start with the letter F.	Washing the dishes; go to www.moogcenter.org for language ideas.	Hunt for spiderwebs; talk about why a spider spins a web.	List three words that rhyme with pie.	Count all the pillows in your house; compare the different shapes and sizes.
Go outside and look for sticks; look for one that is straight and one that is crooked.	Hide an object on, under, behind, and next to your bed.	Talk about your favorite food to eat on Thanksgiving.	Make a birdfeeder; string Cheerios on a pipe cleaner, connect the ends, and hang it outside.	Find three things in your house that are yellow; label them.
